

how to play

minimum duration:

15 min.

minimum number of players

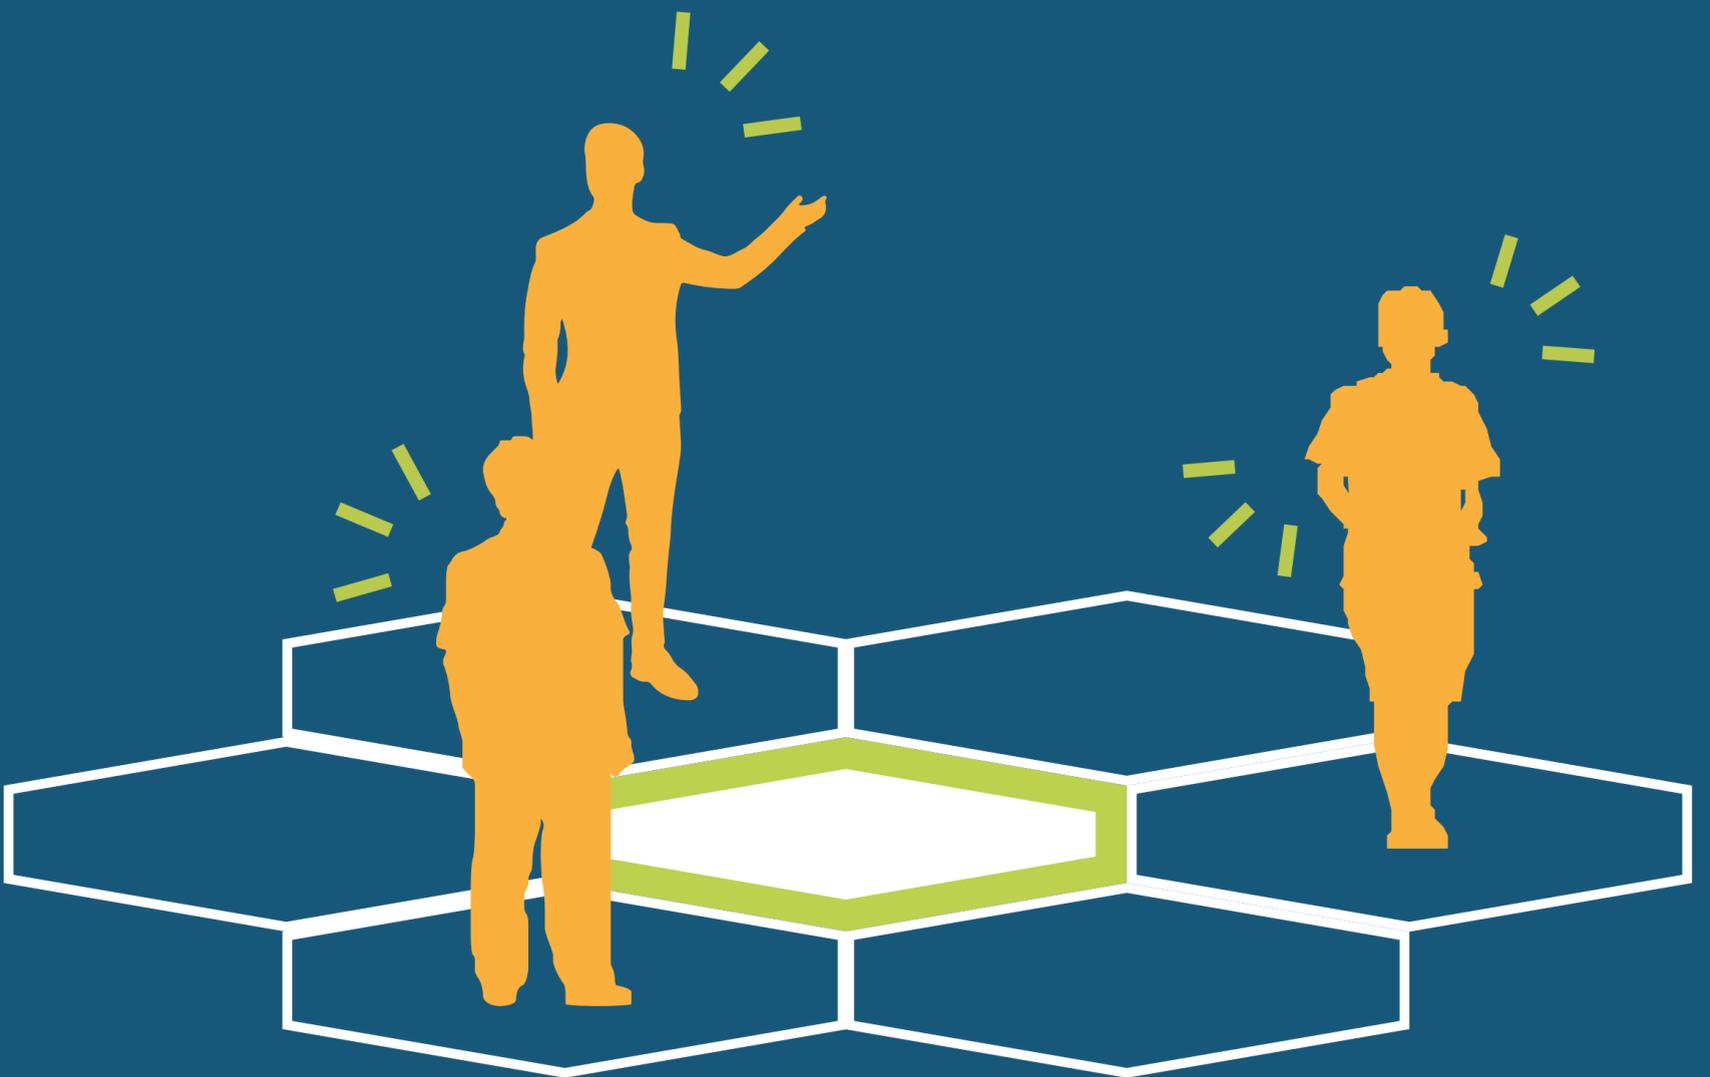

2 people

basic rules

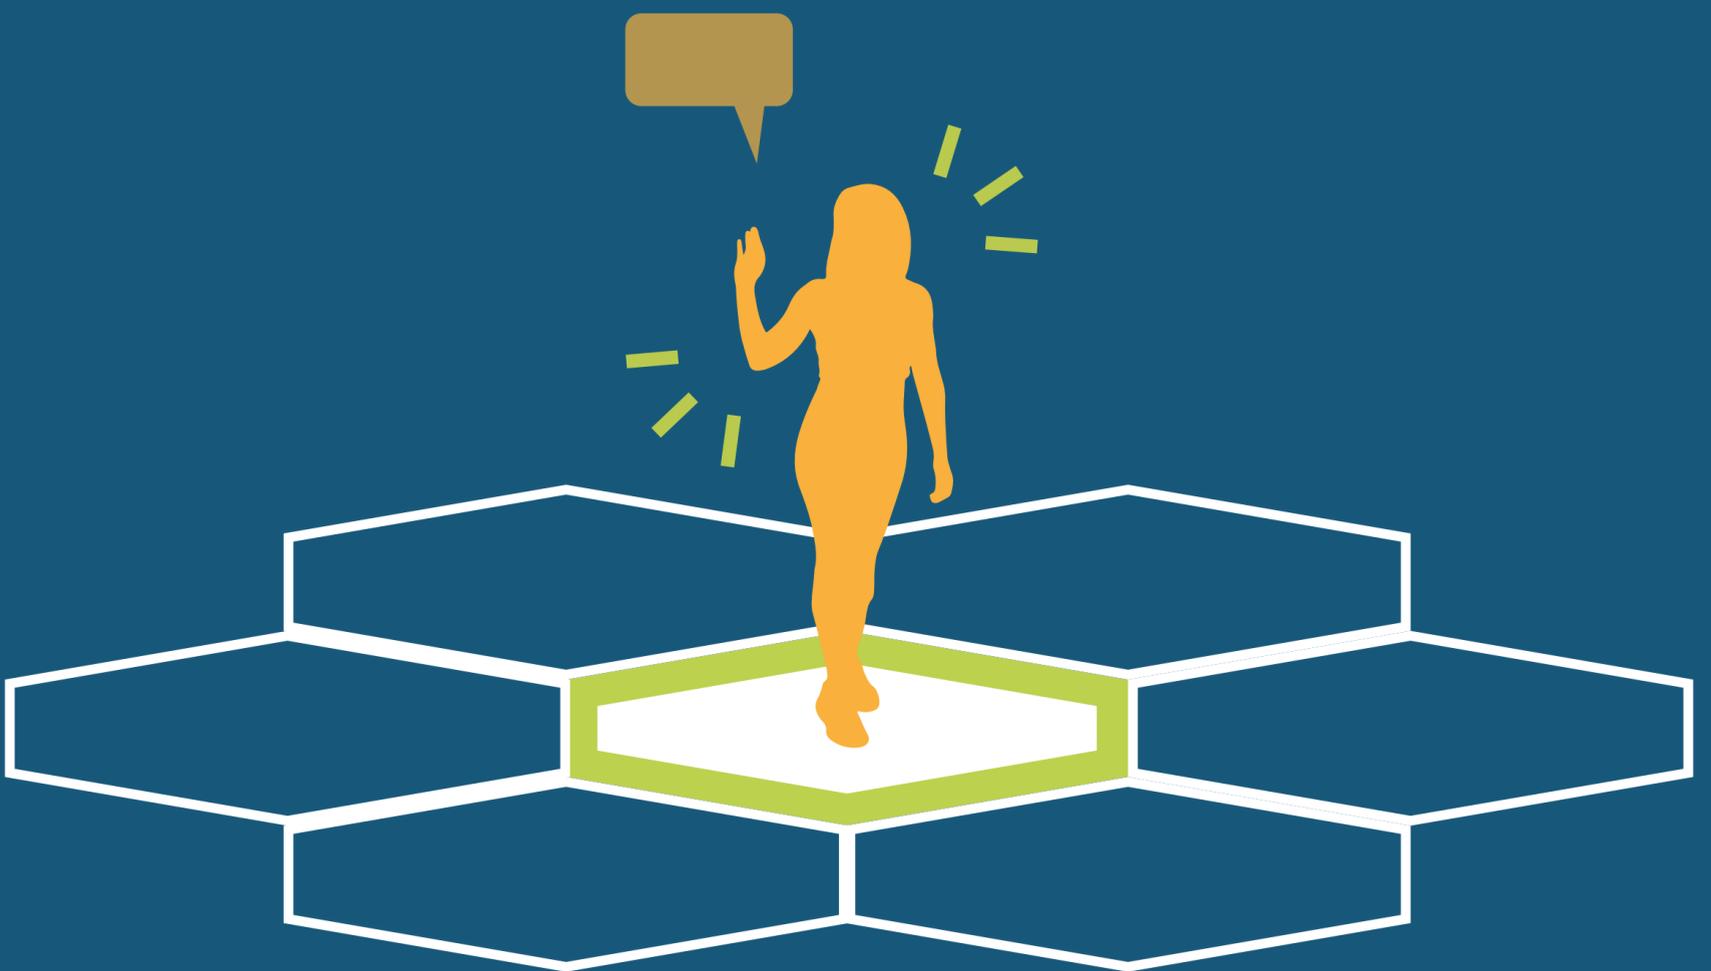

objective of the game:

share and discover stories and narratives told by the players in the superhouse.

basic rules

the superhouse is the central hexagon with the highlighted border. in this game, we have the stage in the center of the conversation circle, where the person who is telling the story for that turn.

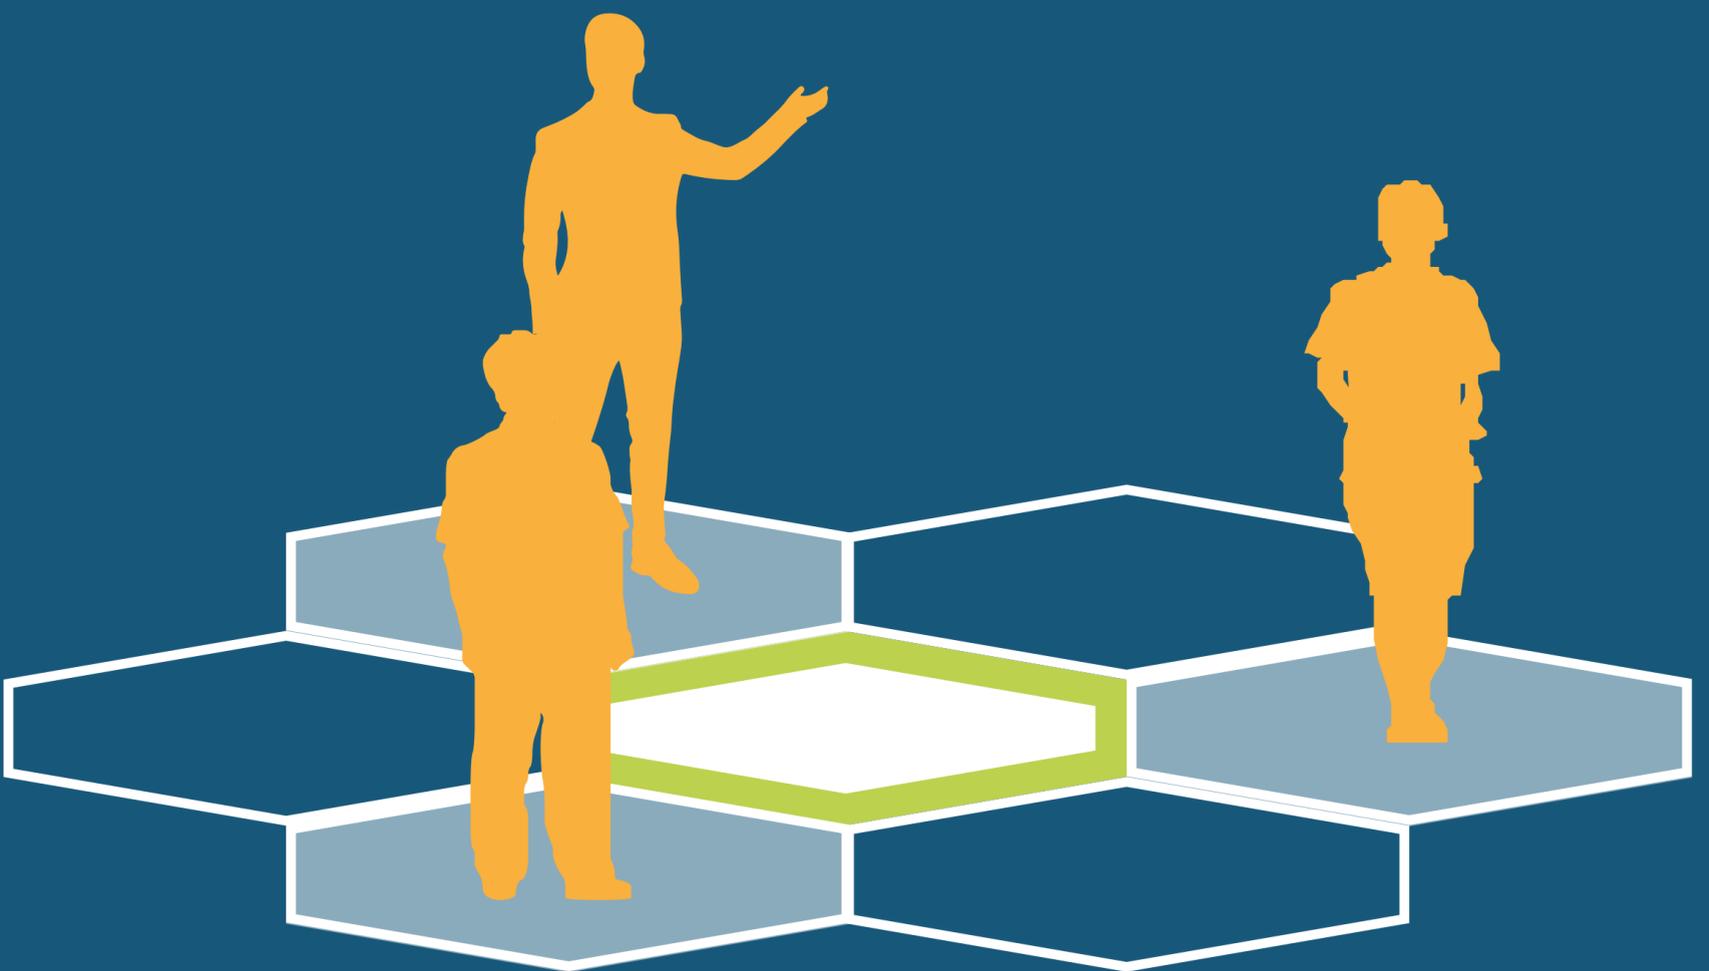

basic rules

before you start, attention: two people can never occupy the same house!

step 01

to begin the game, each person chooses a square and stands in the middle of it, forming a circle.

step 02

one participant volunteers to go to the central superhouse, the stage. in the superhouse, the types of stories are written on the floor: from a book, from another, mine, inverted, made up, continue. the participant chooses (and doesn't reveal to anyone) the type of story they want to tell. if you want, you can choose a theme for the story.

step 03

players can also draw a theme and a story type through the app! when you are on the stage, point your cell phone at the marker on the edge of the superhouse. the app will draw the theme and the type of story you have to tell!

step 04

you have 5 minutes to tell the story. the other people in the game have to guess what kind of story you told. whoever can guess it, goes to the stage.

step 05

if someone gets or chooses the type continue the story, everyone participates ! each player must continue a bit of the story and move on to the next. the last one makes up the ending and moves on to the stage.

step 06

the process is repeated until everyone who wants to tell stories goes through the stage, for the number of rounds you want.

now you know all the steps! let's play ?
